In this vast world there is a small city. And in this city there is a small hill where lies a school. Upon this school there is a very tiny light shining brightly from a tower. Although the light seems diminutive at first, with each passing day it grows stronger and brighter as the graduates of Archbishop Prendergast High School shine their light of God upon the world. This radiance is as varied as light itself. When a bright light shines through a prism, a rainbow of colors can be seen, symbolizing uniqueness and unity. A roaring, flickering fire creates feelings of warmth and security. The hues of an immense sunset awe the viewer and renew his spirit. Candles glowing brilliantly in a dark room send forth expressions of strength and hope. Twinkling down from the heavens, stars can be inspirations for all. And now as we, the class of Nineteen Hundred Eighty-two, are taking one last glimpse of our school and its tower, we know that we shall contribute to the world the radiant qualities that we have acquired here with the help of the light on this hill which will shine forever in our hearts.

25 YEARS OF...

VIEWS FROM THE TOWER

Twenty - fifth Anniversary Celebration

Cardinal Krol receives a smiling welcome from faculty and students as he is presented with a bouquet of roses.

Crozier in hand, Cardinal Krol, accompanied by Father Givney and Father Fitzmaurice, proceeds to the altar.

A Mass of Thanksgiving is concelebrated by the Cardinal, school minister, former principals, and pastors of feeder parishes.

A Day of Thanks, Praise, and Jubilee

Maria Leone accompanies Cardinal Krol to the stage for a "rap session" with juniors and seniors.

Maryellen Marino offers Cardinal Krol a stuffed panda, a symbol of Prendie spirit.

Former principals, Father Thomas Nelson, Sister Anna Josephine, and Father Wilfred Maloney, return to celebrate the Silver Jubilee with Cardinal Krol, Sister Madeleine Marie, and the entire Prendergast community.

Cardinal and Vicar

His Eminence John Cardinal Krol enthusiastically stated his commitment to Catholic education in his address on the day of the twenty-fifth anniversary of A.P.H.S. The Cardinal and Msgr. Paul F. Curran, Vicar for Catholic Education, are proud to support and guide the Philadelphia Archdiocesan secondary school system, which is the largest in the world.

Cardinal Krol addresses the student body on Jubilee Day.

His Eminence Archbishop John Cardinal Krol of Philadelphia.

Chorus and Folk Group gain the appreciation of Cardinal Krol and Sister Madeleine Marie with a lively rock song.

Vicar for Catholic Education, Rev. Monsignor Paul F. Curran

Principal and Vice Principal

Principal, Sister Madeleine Marie, R.S.M.

Model and motivator for A.P.H.S. students to become good Christian women, Sister Madeleine Marie combines hard work and dedication. Miss Jill Mayer employs unique creativity in her communications with the Prendie public. After official business, Principal and Vice Principal appear in the bleachers to cheer on the home team or at a dance to give a gracious welcome to all.

Greeting couples at a dance is a pleasure.

Vice Principal, Miss Julia V. Mayer

The Home and School Association celebrates the beginning of the Jubilee year.

Coordinators

Sister Mary Jogues came to A.P.H.S. four years ago with an exciting, challenging job awaiting her. With something always to be done, she feels "the Activities Office is well named." Her work includes collecting tuition, organizing the annual fund drive, and overseeing the sale of tickets for dances and shows. Through her involvement with the social activities of the school, Sister gets the opportunity to meet girls in a friendly relaxed atmosphere.

Sister Bernard Eileen arrived three years ago; however this was not her first encounter with Prendie, for she taught in the Business Department nineteen years ago. Although her duties as Disciplinarian are filled with rewards, at times it is hard to overcome feelings of frustration. With the constant flow of new ideas and situations, it is no wonder her job "changes from minute to minute."

Sister Rita, Director of Studies, is a member of the founding faculty as well as former teacher of Miss Gulczynski and Mrs. Prieto. Sister finds it extremely interesting and rewarding to prepare each girl individually for her next role in life. Beginning each day with a prayer, she hopes to find the opportunity "to help someone in a special way." Sister finds the enthusiasm and spirit of the Prendie community delightful, and attributes Prendie's greatness to Father Nelson, the first principal.

Special Services

(left) Sister Bernard Eileen has three sets of helping hands to make sure the D.O. runs smoothly. Sister Clare Emmanuel, Sister Helen Raphael, and Sister St. James handle absence notes, early dismissals, and lockers, respectively.

Sister Ann Elizabeth and Sister Irene Marie help to process books and are always ready to assist students in the library.

Sister Marita Joseph assists in the Activities Office in various business matters. Sister Odilia keeps all tuition records up to date.

Working in connection with the Guidance Office, Sister Josephine Rosarii offers help in preparation for S.A.T.'s and in career guidance. Sister also tutors in English and provides enrichment skills for A.P. classes.

Guidance

The Guidance Department offers a multitude of facilities to aid students. Mrs. Maria Marino coordinates the many services which fall into two main categories. Sister Evarista and Sister Consolata direct the College/Careers department which offers counseling, financial aid information, career filmstrips, guide sheets, college catalogs, and assistance with applications. The colleges most attended by A.P.H.S. graduates are those in the Philadelphia area, and the careers most pursued are in the fields of Allied Health, Business, and the Arts.

The Counseling Center offers programs to assist students socially and personally on a one-to-one basis. Throughout the year the Center coordinates such activities as the Intermediate Unit services, Alateen, S.A.T. preparation, and a self-directed search test. The Center has ten faculty members who assist with personal counseling.

THE LIGHT ON THIS HILL WILL SHINE
FOREVER IN THE HEARTS OF THOSE WHO

Climbed these stairs.

Look out! Climbing these stairs is such a hard job that sometimes students happen to trip. A girl can get lost in the chaos of classes, marks, and activities, and become distracted from the purpose of her climb. However, once the top of the stairs has been reached, a girl will forget the books and grades and be rewarded with an education that will last a lifetime. Each time a student learns something new it is beautiful. As she looks back on what she has learned, it's like viewing an immense sunset and she is awed by its radiance. Just as a beautiful sunset renews the spirit of the viewer, the light of God is a constant source of renewal in our daily pursuit of knowledge and happiness.

FRESHMEN. . .the puzzled who become

Bewildered and befuddled have described the freshmen ever since 1956 when Prendie's first students walked through the doors. Even today when someone sees a puzzled, shy, innocent face, she knows the face belongs to a frosh. But although freshmen appear confused, they have much creativity, spirit, and friendliness. Back in 1956 some girls wrote to pen pals who lived in France, Germany, Japan, and England. And during their Coke breaks the freshmen produced and acted in little plays. Today freshmen show their spirit by leading the school in its improvement drive and by becoming involved in the various activities offered after school. By learning to love and participate in the traditions of Prendie, the freshmen will eventually possess the glow of the seniors and really learn the meaning of Panda Power.

Mary Kate McNulty, Christine Smith, and Flossie McGarrity Ingeniously Produce Small-knots.

"Thanks for the smile, but where's my Coke?"

"Hey, Mrs. Panepinto, the slide is upside down!"

This is a cinch, Megan, but wait till you get calculus!

Sister Joan Marie Berk spellbinds her class.

Teresa Hornibrook and Ann Mullarkey prove that you're never too old to play with les poupées.

Freshmen discover that prayer is an essential part of Prendie life.

Kate McCloskey finds that practice makes perfect.

SOPHOMORES. . .the spirited who share

Since 1957 sophomores have been famous for their exuberant spirit. They have struggled through their first tough year of high school and let it be known that they are fantastic people. In 1957 the first sophomore class challenged the freshmen to the first intramural basketball game held at Prendergast. It was a close game, but naturally the sophs won. Do you think that the rowdy class of '84 could have beaten this year's freshmen in an athletic competition? Sophs certainly have enough spirit, especially on the day of their Soph Hop. The sophomore dance is a high point in every girl's under-class years. Back in '57 it was no different—May 23 marked the first dance at Prendie. Today sophomores wear blue and white ribbons in their hair to celebrate Super Soph Day.

(right) Linda Colasante tries to envision the suave and debonair Frenchman, who is speaking on the tape.

"I'm practically touching the ceiling, but she still doesn't see me," sighs Chrissy Schweitzer.

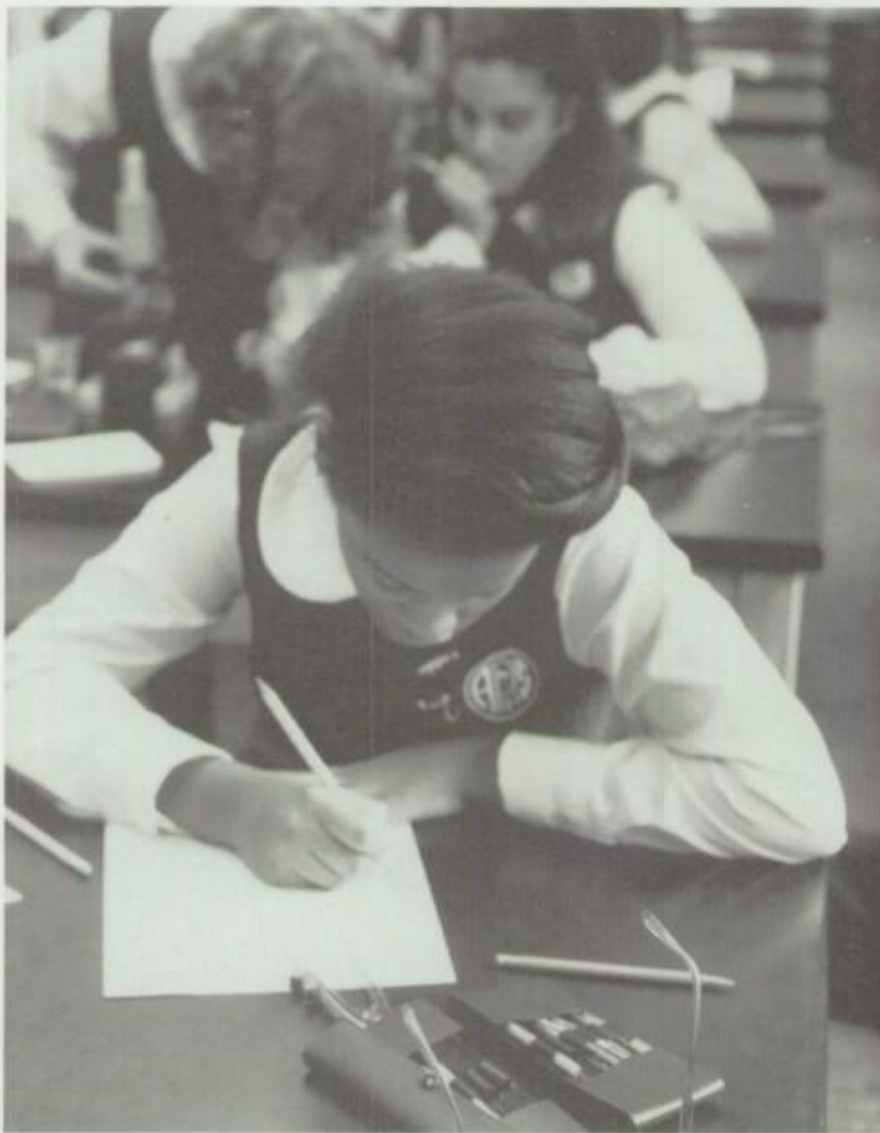

Sister Joanne has the class in the palm of her hand.

"Check this out, Mary Lee! It's crawling off the slide," squeals Patty Campanelli.

Laurie Dinsmore and Kim Misantone are intrigued by the religion class discussion.

Michelle Downes artistically draws her biology specimen.

"Sure, Miss Scott, it's easy for you to understand that poem."

"Are you sure she fell through the hole?" wonders Miss Hyland. "I can't find her anywhere."

Come on, Melanie and Ginny, does it really take two sophomores to draw a straight line?

Sister Beverly pleads her case.

"A good teacher is one who presents ideas clearly, demands hard work, and still allows me to be an individual."

JUNIORS. . .the dreamers who wonder

Anxious and high-spirited are just two of many words one can use to describe the junior classes from 1958 to 1982. Each junior has dreamed of wearing her own school ring ever since the tradition began in June of 1959. And each girl has eagerly awaited her Junior Dance when she and her date waltzed across the floor to the popular songs of the day. Enthusiasm has always been a special trait of juniors. Back in 1959 the juniors formed the Booster Club, having Brewster the Booster as their mascot. And in 1981, homeroom 13B held first place in the annual school improvement drive. How can anyone forget the tremendous spirit shown on J-Day when green and white ribbons bounced through the halls? Juniors are definitely assets to Prendie.

SENIORS. . .the believers who know

Only one word can adequately describe the senior classes that have entered Prendie's gates — TRIUMPHANT! In their last year at A.P.H.S. the spirit of the seniors has reached its climax. From 1960 to the present graduating class of 1982 many happenings have taken place which enhance the importance of that "final year." Did you know that the first Ring Day was held in December, 1959, or that the first Baccalaureate Mass was held at St. Alice Church in 1960? And how can anyone forget the 25th annual Dad-Daughter Dance, which was held in November of 1981 or the new tradition of the 50's Dance which was started by the seniors in February, 1982? All of these events are treasured in the hearts of the class of 1982.

Vo-Tech

Vo-tech schools are technological wonders that offer a wide range of occupational skills. Attending the vo-tech schools in Folcroft, Aston, and Marple, ninety-eight Prendie students participated in a variety of programs during the 1981-1982 school year. The majority studied health-related careers such as Medical Assistant and Dental Laboratory Technician. Second most popular was the Cosmetology course, which qualifies a graduate for state licensing as a beautician.

Other careers most often pursued were Data Processing and Child Care and Development. Prospective artists were enrolled in the Graphics program where they prepared for occupations in advertising, printing, and illustrating. Kathy Murtaugh began her career in Electronics, while Gina Gudelunas learned the basics of Horticulture. Kellie McShane is on her way to a career in the food industry. Each afternoon, vo-tech students come "home" to their Prendie community and classes.

(right) Collette Maitland's bright smile will brighten up any office.

No matter how hard Nancy Angelaccio tries, she'll never have eyes in back of her head.

Eileen Morell can't find the error in her computer program.

Anyone can tell that these Prendie girls, Bernadette, Joanne, and Mina, enjoy their courses at Vo-Tech.

THE LIGHT ON THIS HILL WILL SHINE
FOREVER IN THE HEARTS OF THOSE WHO

Played on these fields.

As her sport season begins, a Prendie athlete devotes herself to improving her skills and helping the team. The team, in turn, uses these skills to reach for the top and to become the best—a star. However, this goal is not achieved by the team alone. With the expertise of their coach and the encouragement of cheerleaders and spectators, a team is motivated into action. A star shining ever brightly above becomes a symbol of an athlete's hope and inspiration to push ahead. As each day passes, the light of God sends forth rays of strength and inspiration to accept weaknesses and improve skills. Prendie's teams and all who support them on our fields and courts will always strive to reach the heights to which God leads them.

REVIEW

Hockey

Since its inception in 1965, the Prendie varsity hockey team has won six Catholic League titles. The 1981-82 team almost clinched another title, ending their season with a 7-1-1 record. Under the direction of their coach, Miss Hyland, and co-captains, Marybeth Kowalski and Patti Vivial, the team never gave up or let the opposition get them down. They went into the playoffs Number One. Tracy Smith and Linda Buonanno were chosen All-Catholic, and Patti Vivial was named M.V.P. of the Catholic League.

Lizzie Eisenstein puts the beauty of teamwork into practice.

Soccer, Freshman Teams

As autumn 1981 made its appearance, the soccer club could be seen training diligently on the front field. Guided by their coach, Mr. Fran Farrell, this young club hopes to obtain league membership by the fall of '82. Although their only game this season resulted in a tie, the girls show great potential for Prendie's newest sport.

Cross-Country

Sweats off! Set! Bang! The gun goes off and Prendie's 1981 Cross Country team stampedes down the dirt road for a grueling 2.5 mile race. The team, usually led by All-Catholic runners, Rene Harbaugh and Elaine McGillian, fights Parachute Hill and the rest of the Catholic League to try to reach the finish line first. In its second year as a varsity sport, the team is coached by Mr. Bill Savage and Mr. Vince Fitzpatrick with help from Prendie graduate, Joanne Murphy.

With about 85 runners behind her, Rene Harbaugh experiences "the loneliness of a long distance runner."

Basketball

"Get rowdy and get psyched!" Enthusiastic Prendie basketball fans found no problem in expressing their support during the 1982 season. The twenty-fifth season for A.P.H.S. basketball was the first for Coach Bucky Gill at Prendie. Opposing teams experienced very challenging games at the hands of Panda hoopsters. Practice sessions this year included weight-lifting to build strength and endurance.

Both Varsity and J.V. teams were shooting for the stars as well as for the baskets, while a new freshman team was being born. This independent team gained experience and skill in their interscholastic bouts. An equally young squad of Pandette cheerleaders arrived on the scene to cheer on the new team.

Swimming

Prendie swimmers, despite the winter's sub-zero temperatures, underwent vigorous training at the "Y" in preparation for the 1982 season. Under coach, Mrs. Phyllis Berardinelli, the team built the physical strength and stamina needed to achieve success. Although competition was tough, captain Peggy Morrison got the team "psyched up" and determined to win. The A.P.H.S. swim team has been splashing around the Catholic League since 1976.

Bowling

The A.P.H.S. bowling team has come a long way since it began in 1957 when the league organized just for fun. Since then the team has won several championships. The 1982 Prendie keglers showed a great deal of individuality, and the composite picture was a great team. Leading the team was captain, Joan Williams, who has the highest average in the Catholic League with many games above 200.

Tennis

Tennis anyone? This expression has been heard around Prendie annually since the tennis team began in 1967. This year, the girls practiced enthusiastically to maintain the level of excellence that has been their trademark throughout the years. In addition to their regular spring season, they also have competed in indoor matches for the first time. Under the direction of Miss Ilona Wolff, team coach, the girls hoped not to be in LOVE the entire season.

Vicki Ferry is having trouble keeping her eyes on the ball.

Prendie's own Chris Evert, Linda Davis, displays perfect tennis form.

Sarah Brown, in her typical style, expresses the thrill of victory.

Track

The Prendie track team, running in rain or shine, has been practicing on Bonner's track since 1973. Team members, striving for excellence in their individual events, combined their talent and effort to make a winning combination. The coaches, Mr. Bill Savage and Mr. Vince Fitzpatrick, entered the girls in various year-round meets, hoping to bring the Catholic League title to Prendie. Co-captains, Marianne McCormick and Beth Manion, kept the team spirit high by doing crazy things such as "backwards jumping jacks."

Cheerleading

Prendie cheerleaders, affectionately called "Panderoos," provide support for the team and lead the spectators' shouts. They hop about in unison, leap to great heights, and perfect their chants and routines through long hours of after school practice. These girls donate spirit and pep to the games; Prendie hockey and basketball would not be the same without these lovable Rah-rah's. In the spring the girls participate in cheerleading competitions.

Sister Jean's girls do a good job of getting the crowd "R-O-W-D-E-Y."

In the late fall wind, Prentie cheerleaders spur on the hockey fans.

Softball

"Diamonds are a girl's best friend," and during the spring Prendie sluggers find the true meaning of this adage as they spend much time on the baseball diamond. Ever since 1967, the Prendie softball team has been working at perfecting their sport. Firmly believing that the long grueling hours of practice will pay off, the team is confident that the road to perfection is becoming shorter each day.

Volleyball

The gym comes alive with the sound of a volleyball against a tight fist. The crowd responds with cheers of victory. Yes, the Prendie Pandas have won another game with their quick reflexes, powerful concentration, and team cooperation. Such were the rewards of tiring practice and undying effort on the part of 1982 volleyball team members. The A.P.H.S. volleyball team has been "setting up" and "spiking" in the Catholic League since 1967.

THE LIGHT ON THIS HILL WILL SHINE
FOREVER IN THE HEARTS OF THOSE WHO

Traveled this path.

Just think! Ever since 1956 a total of 14,752 girls have walked down this path sharing their laughter, sadness, memories, and traditions. In leaving behind traditions and examples for us to follow, they have given us the strength and hope to remain firm in our faith, to improve Prendie, and to add to her traditions. It is similar to the light of a candle glowing in a dark room. The rays seem to send forth strength and hope. As we take strides in new and different areas of life, our trust in God is our assurance of the light we will need. As we set out into the future, we also hold close the memories of the past that have taken place beneath Prendie's tower. If it could ever speak, the light of the tower must have millions of stories to tell.

NOW

Always a Home

The roots of A.P.H.S. extend deeply into the past, and this extensive history has made Prendie unique. The original mansion, built on this site in 1850, became the property of Anthony J. Drexel in 1882. A tragic fire in 1908 left only the Gatehouse. In 1917 Archbishop Edmond T. Prendergast purchased the 33-acre property to build a much needed orphanage.

St. Vincent's Home opened in 1920 and served hundreds of area orphans until 1952. The Home was converted into Archbishop Prendergast High School for Boys in 1953. Upon the completion of Msgr. Bonner High School in 1956, the building in Drexel Hill became Archbishop Prendergast High School for Girls—once a Home and always a home.

(right) It's recess time! The children enjoy fun and games on their tree-lined playground. On rainy days the entire basement was used as a playground.

Can this be room 112? The Daughters of Charity make sure the children are skilled in the 3 R's. First floor classrooms were always classrooms, those on the second and third floors were dormitories for 500 children at one time.

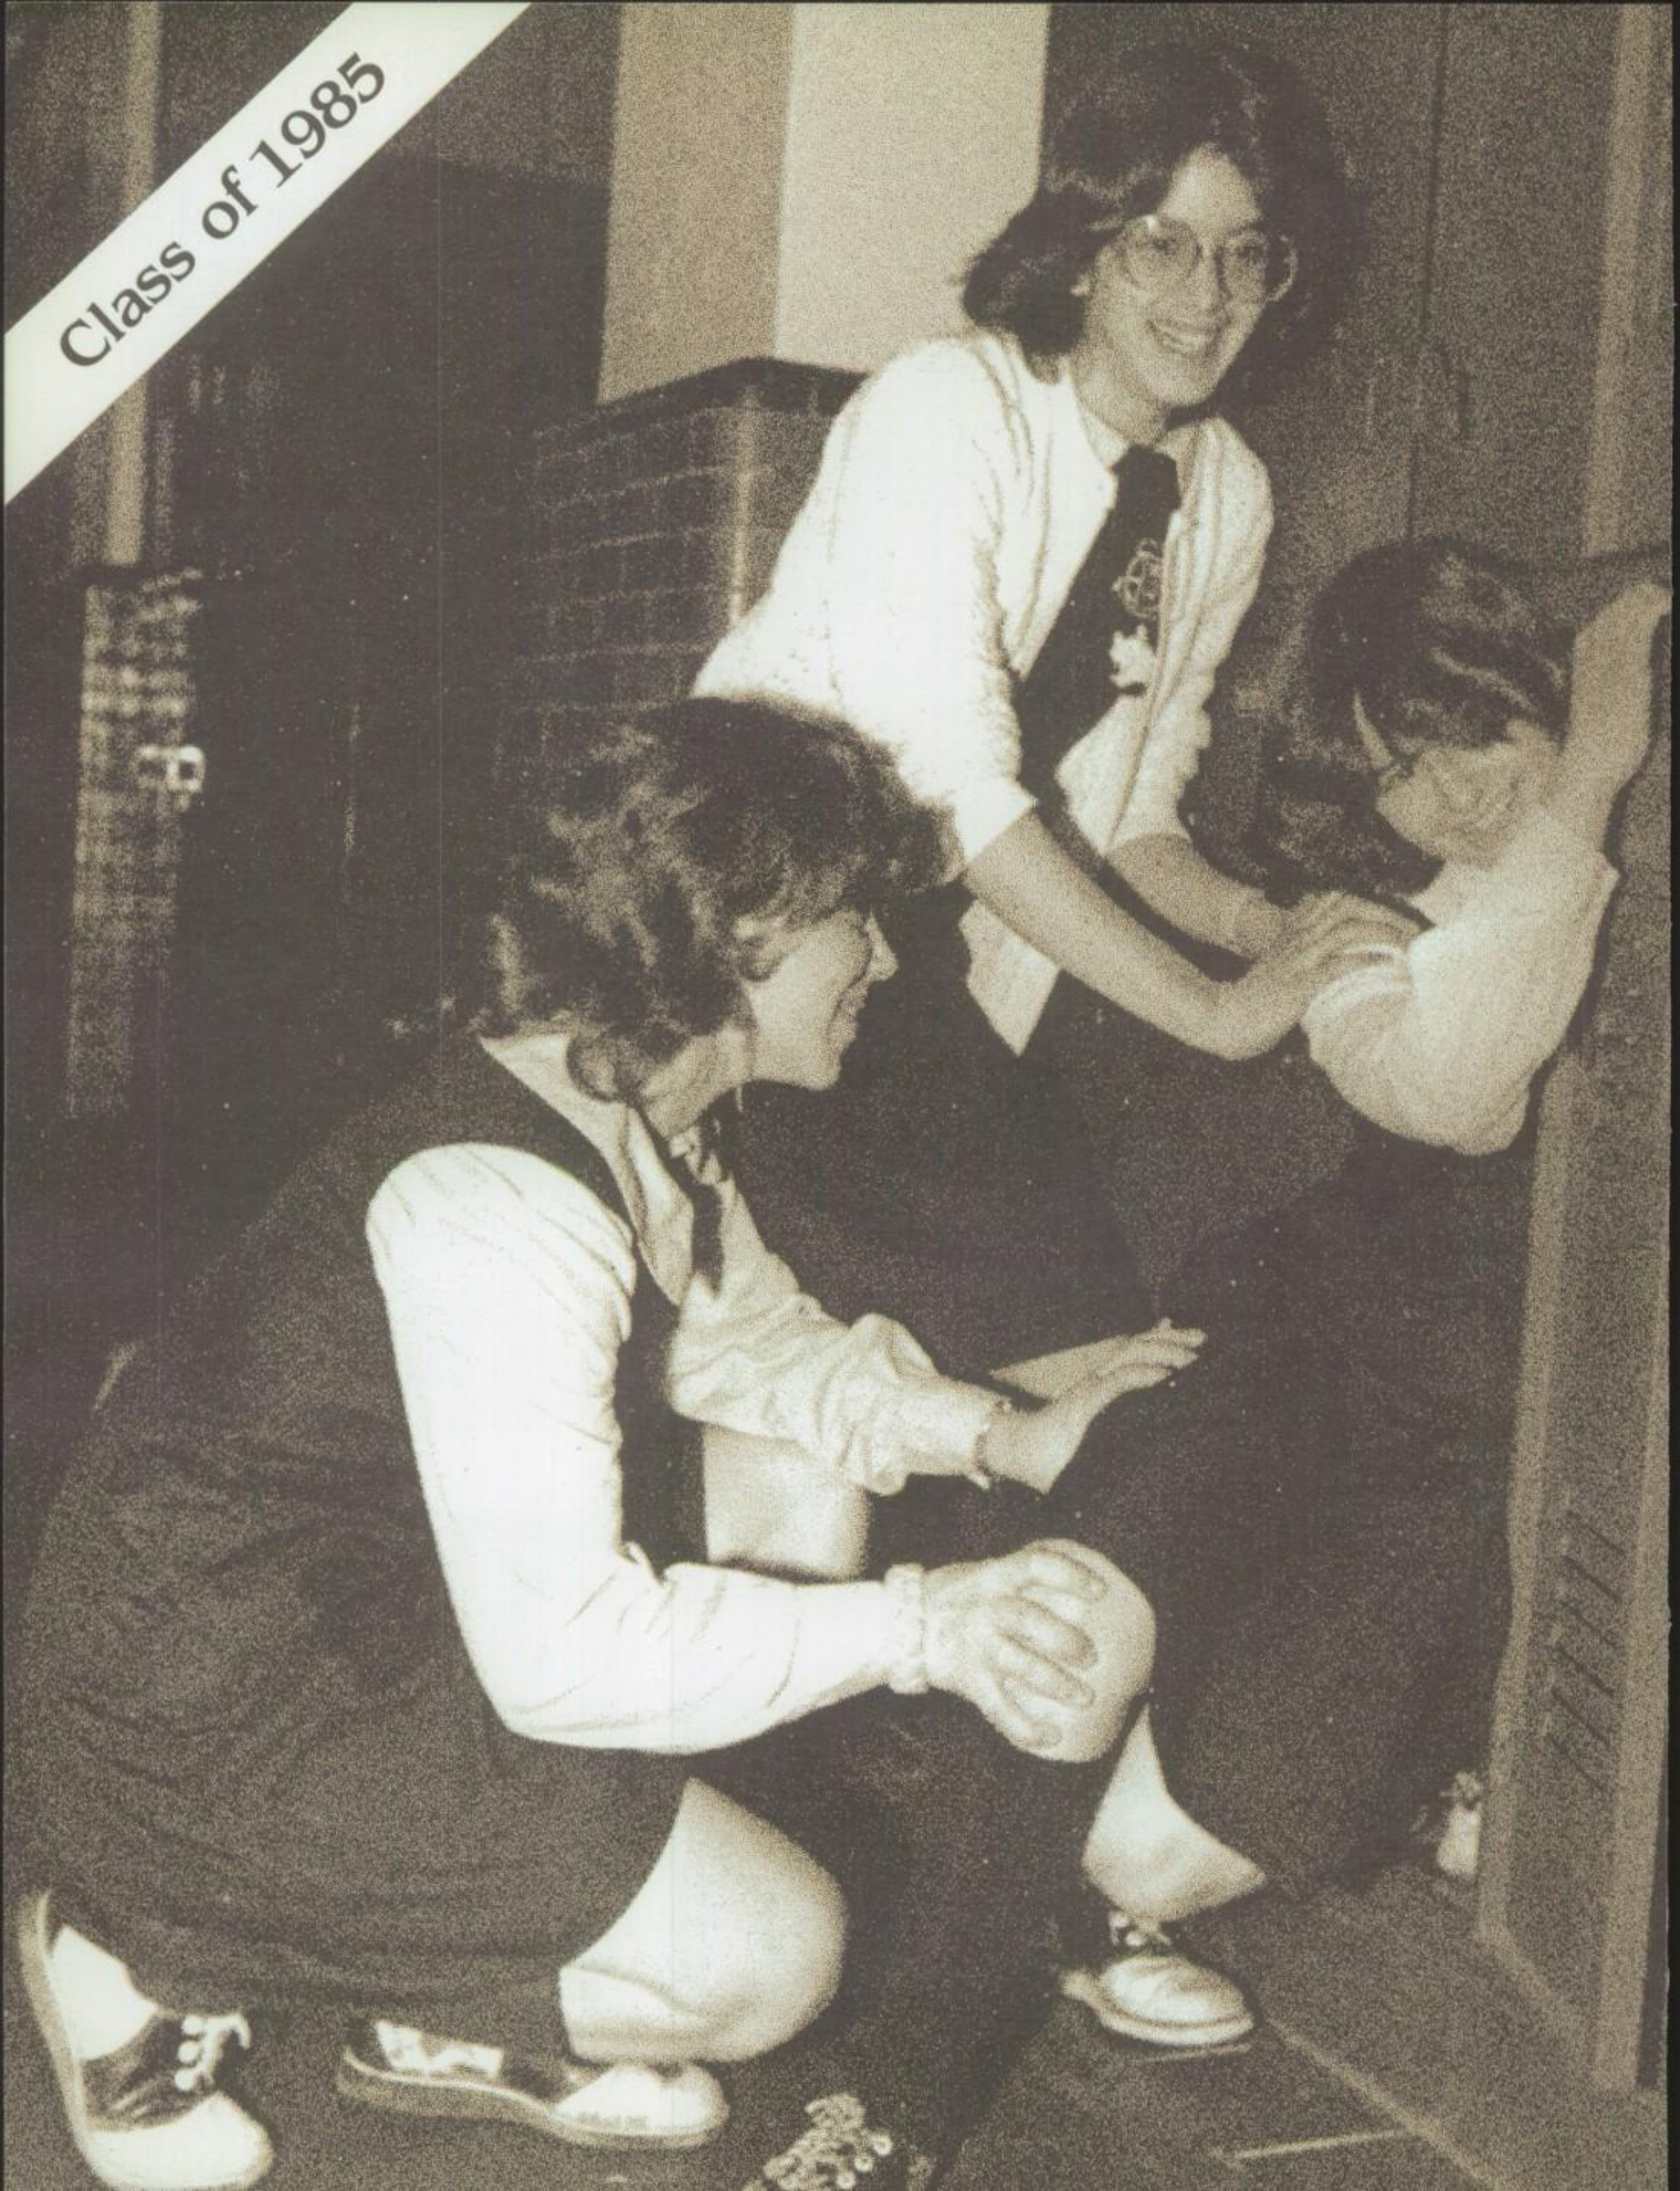

How did the children survive without soft pretzels, french fries, and chocolate chip cookies? The orphanage had its own bakery and a small farm, complete with chicken coop.

"Sister, I like Curad 'cause they don't ouch me." The Home, when it opened, boasted the most modern and complete dental dispensary and infirmary in the country.

(left) Monkey bars are a perennial favorite for little boys. All these clothes were made in the Home's sewing room, which is now the art room.

All Those Years Ago

First Dad-Daughter Dance—1960

On September 5, 1956, opening day of Archbishop Prendergast High School for Girls, Father Thomas Nelson and a faculty of seventeen Sisters welcomed 738 excited and scared freshmen. For their first year the girls along with the freshman boys attended school at the unfinished Msgr. Bonner High School (on two separate floors!). Sophomore, junior, and senior boys continued at the Archbishop Prendergast building that year.

The 1956-57 school year marked the beginning of many traditions. One that did not continue was the twenty-minute Coke break in the homeroom each day, which really replaced a lunch period that was not on the five-period schedule. When the P.A. System was used for the first time, the school colors and school patroness were announced, and the newly formed Glee Club gave a preview of the freshman "Alma Mater." The orchestra was formed from the beginning days but consisted of only stringed instruments, bells, and drums. The activities established the first year included Student Council whose duties were mainly disciplinary. Members even issued demerits. The Miter published an excellent newspaper from the start. The first three publications of The Crozier were literary magazines rather than yearbooks. Hockey and basketball teams also were formed. By the second year the enrollment had doubled and there were many more Prendie "firsts" as the girls finally had their own building with its beautiful chapel, large cafeteria, and its own gym. The Fifties ended with 2,685 spirited students taught by a faculty of eighty-four.

The 1960's began with many changes as the school plant was being expanded. From 1959 through 1960 the 23-classroom wing was taking its shape. In 1964 the construction of the auditorium was completed and dedicated by founding principal, Father Nelson. The enrollment peaked at 3,554 in 1964 with a faculty of 107 religious and lay teachers. In 1968 Father Wilfred Maloney became principal.

By 1970, A.P.H.S. graduates numbered 8,273. The alumnae were received well in businesses and colleges and many careers. In 1973 the Prendie community welcomed Sister Anna Josephine, S.S.J., as principal. The chapel was renovated in 1975. Carpets were laid, the altar railing was removed, and the very small benches (remnants of the orphanage) were placed around the school to make little rest areas in the halls. Then in 1978 a major tragedy occurred. It started from a small spark and grew into a large fire in the gym. Cardinal Krol soon visited the school to announce plans for building a new gym. On April 16, 1979, the class of '82 had the first dance in the new gym. In October of 1979 the visit of Pope John Paul II had a great impact on every school, and Prendie students participated in the special day as the orchestra played along the Pope's motorcade route, and Student Council members acted as ushers at the Mass on the Parkway.

Another change came in the Eighties when Sister Madeleine Marie, R.S.M., became principal in the fall of 1980. The most important event in the present decade is the 25th anniversary of the school, which was celebrated several times during the 1981-82 school year. At the heart of each celebration was thanksgiving to God for twenty-five blessed, fruitful years in the field of Catholic education. Although Prendie has undergone many changes in twenty-five years, the feeling of a community is still with everyone today. The spirit brought by the girls in 1956 has been carried through all the years. Prendie has been the biggest and the best part of the girls' lives, and it will continue to hold a special place in their memories forever.

Spiritual Life

A deepening awareness of one's faith brings a greater desire to live out the Good News, to participate more fully in the liturgy, and to seek opportunities to pray and express one's love for God. At A.P.H.S. school life is a God-centered life for all members of the Prendie family. The chapel is particularly beautiful, and its stained glass windows recall the life of Christ as well as the Daughters of Charity, who ran St. Vincent's Home in the school's pre-Prendie days. A special privilege for A.P.H.S. is the devotion of Forty Hours held each spring.

Father Givey, as School Minister, and the chaplains, who come one on each day of the week, are always ready to counsel, teach, and administer the sacraments. Mass, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and the distribution of Holy Communion are offered daily. Class retreats during Holy Week, vocation days, and special Masses for every special occasion provide an awareness of God's presence in one's life and opportunity to grow spiritually.

Many students participate in organizing, reading, singing, or dancing for Masses that are offered to ask God's blessing on the opening of a sports season or the work of a certain school organization. These teams and organizations, in turn, strive to do all for the greater honor and glory of God.

What's Trendy at Prendie?

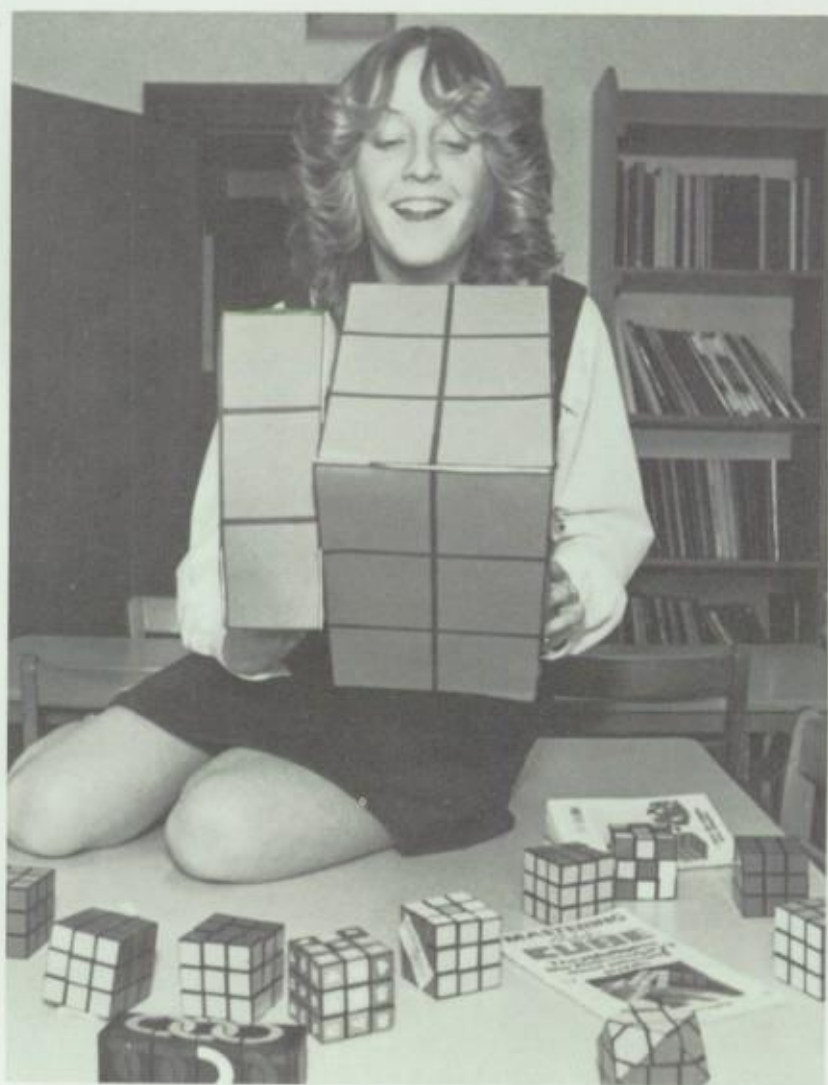

Do you remember the wild and freaky things we did over the last year? What was in and what was out? What was cool and what was dorky? Do you remember?

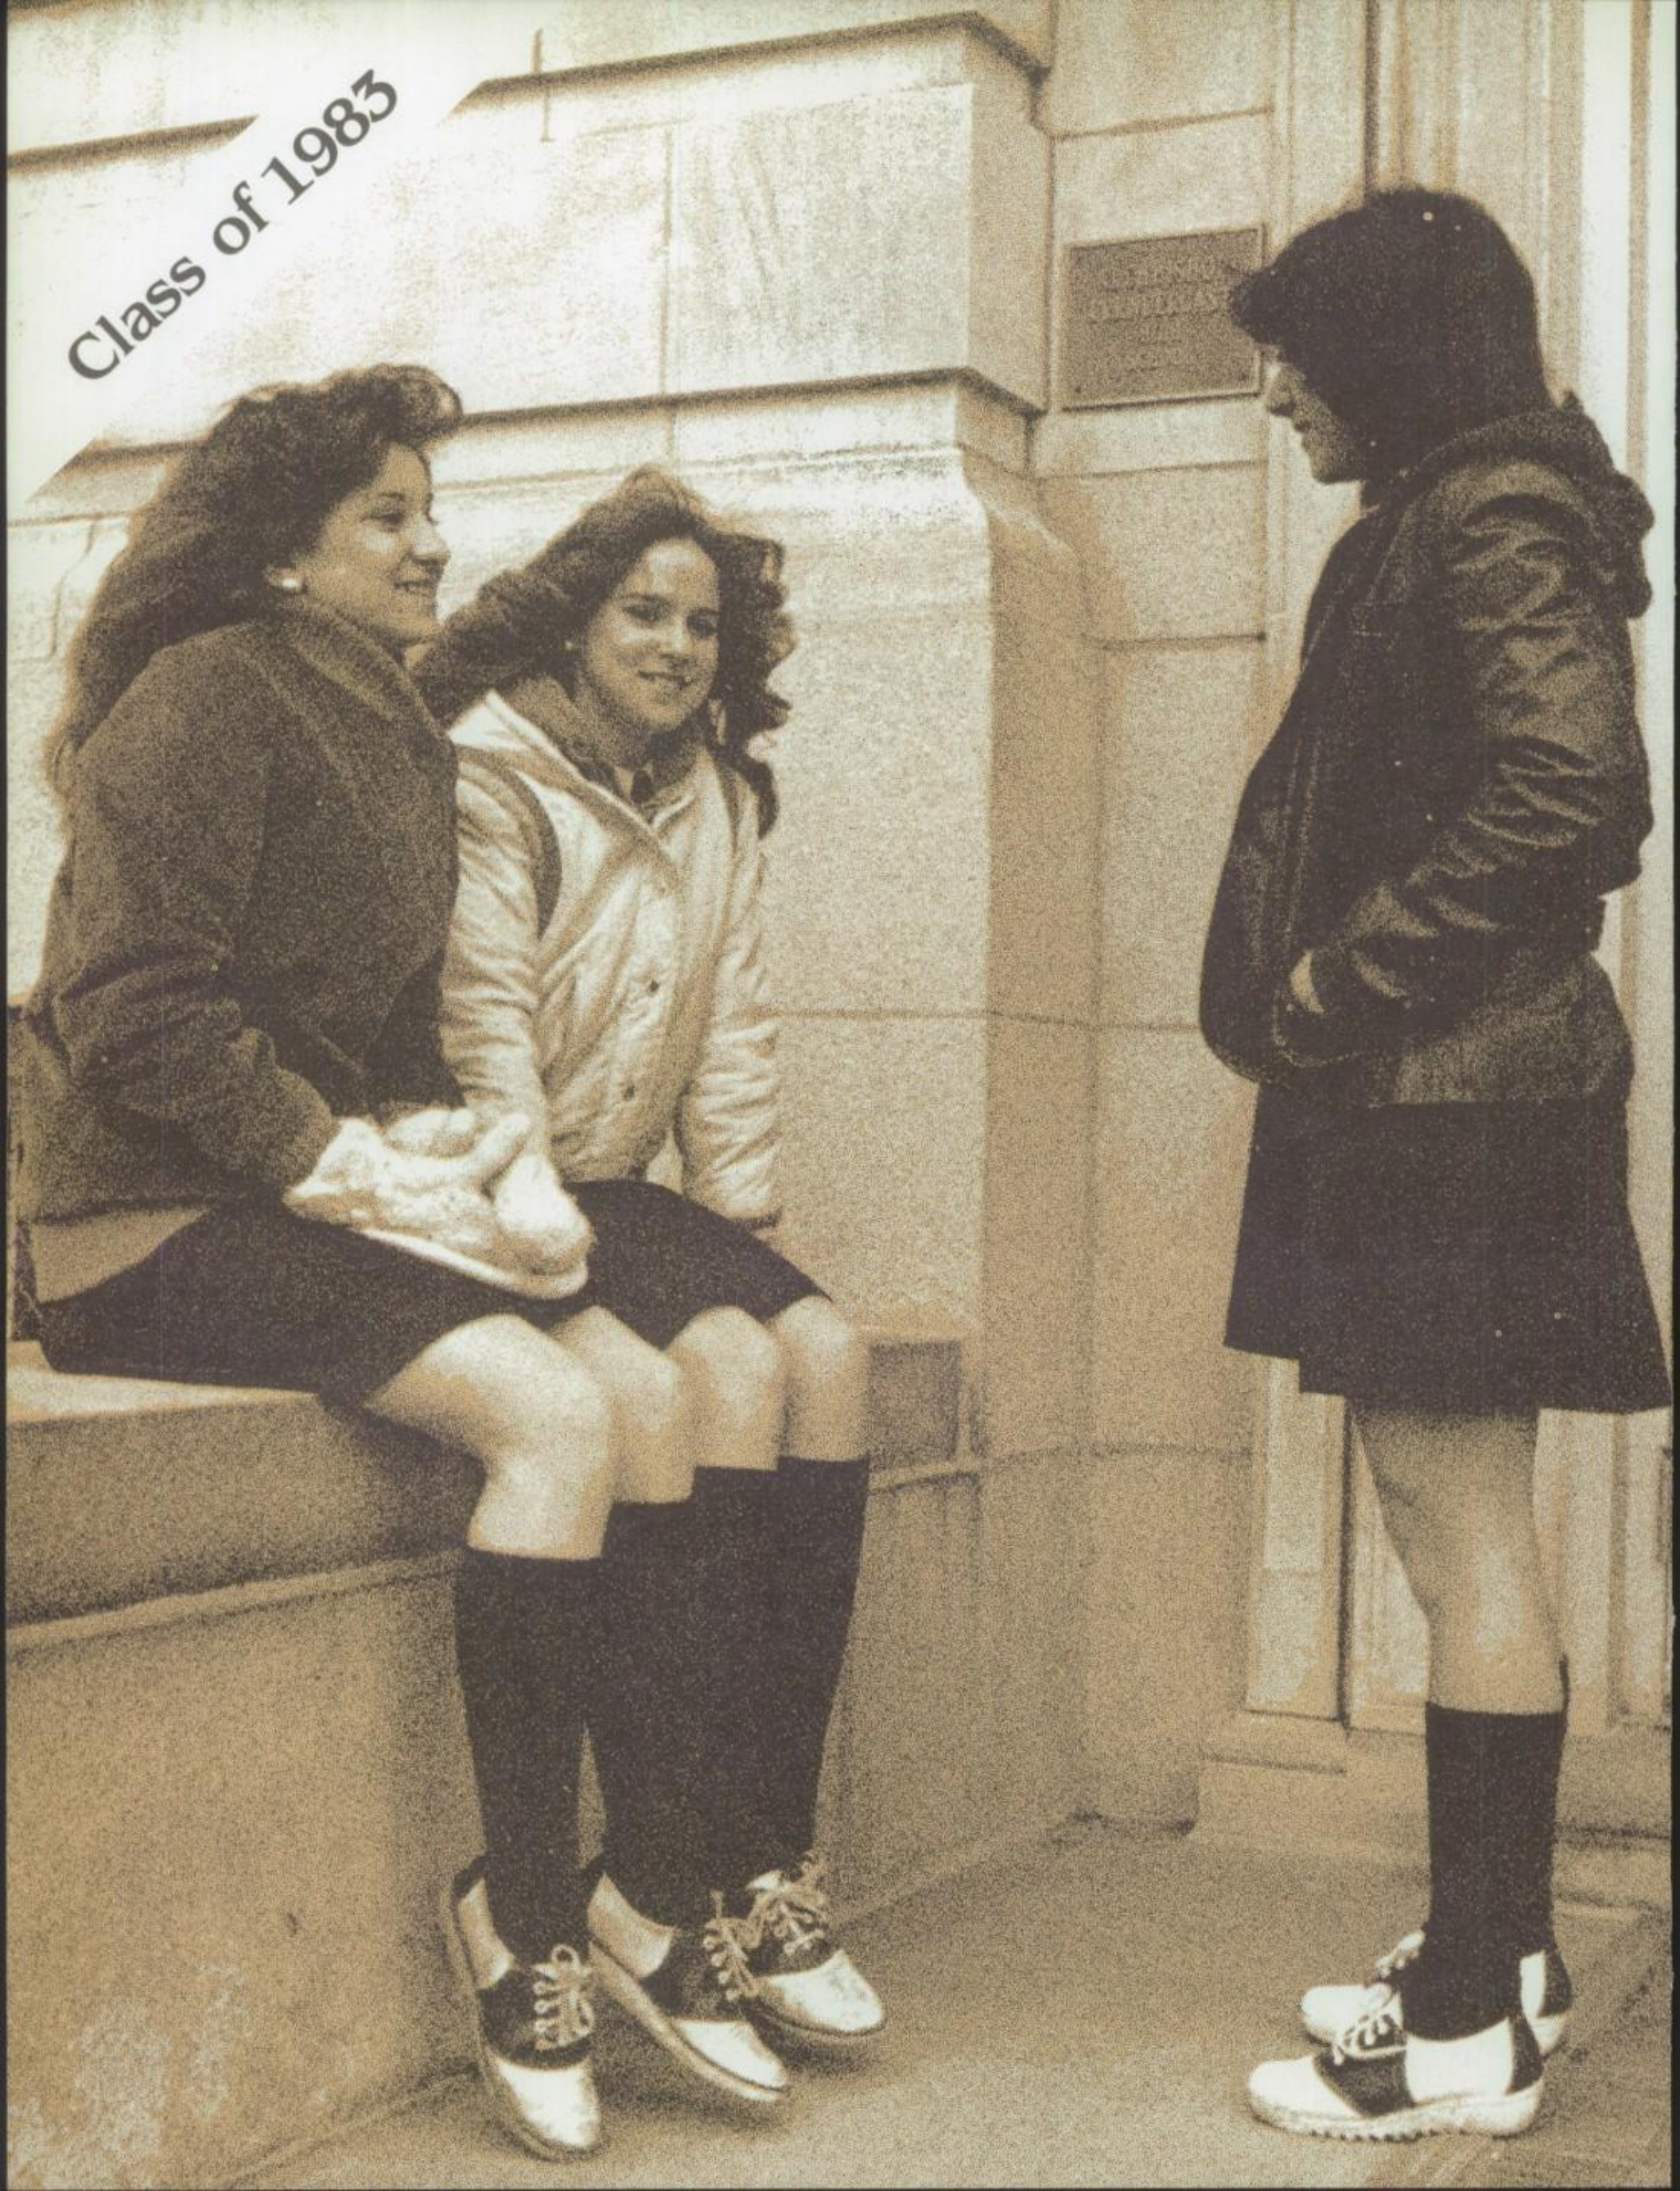

...Smurfs, your true blue friends...I've got one more side to go on my cube...Dancin' to "Apache"...Purple mini-skirts with gold shoes...Pacman fever..."Girls, I'm not going to tell you again—leg warmers are not regulation"...I've gotta go home and watch Eddie Bruce at 4 o'clock...Getting a hernia by carrying around a 40 lb. radio...Cowboy vs. Indian with boots vs. moccasins and 10 gallon hats vs. headbands and feathers...Starting up at the Rolling Stones concert...

Sliding into your $40 Calvins, Glorias, Sergios, etc...Being a very "kinky girl"...Getting the beat with the Go-Go's...Hanging leaves from your ears..."Put on your best dress, Baby, and Darlin', fix your hair up right"...Having a great time just punkin', rockin', and funkin', to your own favorite tune.

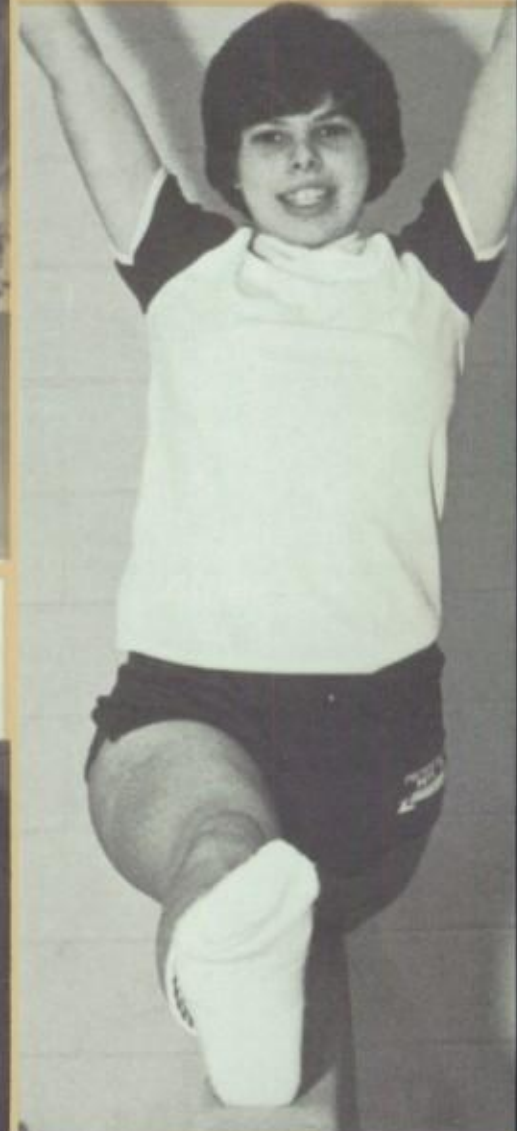

As we "Turn the Page" we'll remember all the fun times we had.

In Appreciation

"What I like most about my parents is the love they give to me and the rest of my family. They always try to give as much as they can to provide for us. They always care about what I'm doing. I love my parents because they love me."

Sue Brisgone

"I'd like to thank my parents for the love, care, and trust they have shown me over the years."

Marie Moffat

"What I like best about my parents is their understanding and openness. I really feel that I can talk to my parents and they will always be there whenever I need help or just to talk. I really love my parents; they are really important to me."

Lizanne Hyland

"My parents are the best. They have given me love and support in any decisions I have made, and they're always there when I need them."

Eileen Waldron

"Thank you, Mom and Dad, for sticking with me and putting up with all my pranks."

Patti Jo Reilly

"My parents have given up a lot to send me to Prendie. They realize the kind of quality Catholic education offered here. They believe in educating me academically, but above all, spiritually."

LaVerne Brogan

"My parents make rules for me because they love me and want me to be the best I can be."

Linda DiFiore

Since this is only a BEGINNING...we can't tell you the END...but we know that, with God's help, A GOOD BEGINNING is all important in bringing about a happy END. The old adage WELL BEGUN IS HALF DONE will prove true, we hope, in the case of A.P.H.S. To the classes which follow us we pass along the torch of Catholic learning and truth, and we admonish them to keep it burning ever brightly, that, seeing it, others may find the true WAY.

Excerpt from The Crozier, 1957

Now in 1982 we take this torch and pass it along to those who will follow us. As in 1957, we cannot tell you the end either, because each new year at Prendie is the beginning of something new and beautiful. We grow and learn, we laugh and cry, we win and lose, we work and play, but most of all, we love.

To the class of 1985: Keep trying. Some day you'll reach the top!

To the class of 1984: Best of luck. You're now upperclassmen!

To the class of 1983: Try your best. We're a tough act to follow!

To the class of 1982: Congratulations! You made it! May all your dreams come true.

Love always,

THE LIGHT ON THIS HILL WILL SHINE
FOREVER IN THE HEARTS OF THOSE WHO

Lingered on campus.

To make one scene in a play perfect it takes many hours of practice. Multiply one play scene by thousands of hours spent on visiting the aged, meeting deadlines, making piñatas, tutoring fellow students, and ever so many other extra-curricular activities and you will see one of the most meaningful and multi-faceted views from the tower. Life after three at Prendie is a special time of sharing, just as sitting around a roaring, flickering fire with good friends is special. The feeling of warmth and the bond that is created among members of every Prendie organization are precious rewards for time spent creating new dance routines or writing headlines. The light of the tower shines warmly and cheerfully on the many Prendie girls who have gathered together to do the special work of each organization.

THREE

Installation Day

On September 30, 1981, the duties that accompany Prendie's highest honor were officially invested in Margie Power, president of Student Council. Installation Day is a special event which touches each student since it formally begins every school activity. Each extracurricular activity provides a pleasant atmosphere in which members can add some spice to their high school years. Guided by their industrious and devoted moderators and leaders, all the organizations provide a setting for cultivating and spreading that unique Prendie spirit.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society consists of forty-nine junior and senior members, who were selected for their outstanding qualities of character, leadership, scholarship, and service. Members share these qualities with fellow students through their tutoring program in which they assist students who need academic help before and after school. The N.H.S. also runs the Family Feud on Prendie Day and assists in the eighth grade visits. Induction to N.H.S. takes place during an impressive formal ceremony in April.

The Miter is the oldest continuous student-run publication at Prendie. For each issue, editors, reporters, typists, artists, and photographers carefully put together four pages of school news. Although it is still largely a traditional paper, there were some notable changes in the layout this year. The staff made each issue smaller and more compact. Then, to brighten the holidays a little, the December issue was printed in a cheery Christmas green.

Crozier

Julie tries to coerce Patty and Cathy to type up a few more sheets of captions.

Cheryl, Joanne, Donna, Therese, and Rose stop to rest on their long journey to the third floor Crozier room.

Editor-in-chief, Cindi LaMonaca. Assistant editor, Carolyn DiDomizio.

Crozier has been capturing memories since 1956, but the first three volumes were literary magazines. The first yearbook was published by the class of 1960. The title, Crozier, is the name of the staff carried by Archbishop Prendergast (and all other bishops). The 1982 Crozier staff has tried to maintain the tradition of excellence established twenty-five years ago. We thank everyone for the enthusiastic cooperation we have met. The book is YOU.

Sister Caritas desperately pleads with Karen and Mary Grace to meet the deadline.

"You think this is a fun job?" moan Caroline and Mary as they labor over layouts.

(top) It takes all kinds to be on the 1982 Crozier staff. For example, Carolyn (lovable), Marlene (Buckwheat), Cindi (Frank), Kim (Hungry Lenz), Bonnie (eccentric), Maria (teasible), Denise (indescribable), Debbie (diligent).

Student Council

The Student Council acts as a liason between students and faculty to communicate ideas and suggestions. Members work very hard around the school planning Installation Day, Prendie Day, Catholic Schools Week, and all the dances. They also assist C.S.C. members with the collections on Charity Days. Every morning through the prayers, one of the four officers gives the student body a bit of inspiration for the day. Each class has its own special project for the year. Seniors prepare Garnet and Gray Day, while the Juniors plan J-Day. Sophomores work together in organizing their first special day, Super-Soph Day.

Prendie Day

Lights, camera, action! and Prendie Day, 1981, cherished as a special day for Big and Little Sisters, began with The Wizard of Oz. The show was a spectacular mini-version of the movie. Toto, Dorothy, and her friends led everyone to the yellow brick road of adventure. This road later brought the girls into the gym to hear the rock-n-roll of the VANDALS.

The next stop was the cafeteria where everyone received the perfect lunch—an ice cream sandwich and a soda. The finale of the day was a fast and furious game of Family Feud between Big and Little Sisters. After such a busy day, everyone could join Dorothy in saying "There's no place like home." (Prendie, that is.)

N.H.S. president, Marianne McCormick, steps out of character.

Lisa Bellino, doing her version of Richard Dawson, acts as emcee as sophs and seniors battle it out in the Family Feud.

Marie Hagarty and Chris Cervino are impressive munchkins.

Reps: Activities, Homeroom, Home & School

Who are those girls—ready, willing, and able at the crack of dawn? Who are the only girls who know where the homeroom boxes are and can find the Activities Office faster than a speeding bullet? They are the representatives. The Homeroom, Activities, and Home and School Reps assist in the various areas of school business to make the entire Prendie community work as one.

Cafeteria, Locker Personnel

Cafeteria Personnel president,
Marie Hughes

Locker Personnel president,
Theresa DeFruscio

You rush into the Caf. You run up to get your french fries. Oh no! Major disaster!

"You got your french fries in my ice cream!"

"No, you got your ice cream in my french fries!"

Who will solve this problem? The dreaded Caf Personnel, at your service!

It is your first tag day as a freshman. You walk towards your locker. Drats!! You forgot your key! Paranoia sets in. You become frenzied. Zowie! You're in luck. Here comes Locker Personnel to the rescue!

Stage Crew, Art & Design

Stage Crew manager,
Theresa Armbruster

To bring Atlantic City's beach to the A.P.H.S. stage was only one of many challenges met by Stage Crew this year. The group is a close-knit one in which members share many talents to make every production and assembly a success. Art and Design Club members develop and exhibit their drawing and design skills.

Dance Troupe president,
Meghan Doyle

Dance Troupe, begun in 1975 by a student, Debbi DiCocco, provides a cultural and entertaining experience for audiences and opportunity to develop members' talent in choreography and performance. The Costume Club, with Sister Marian Laura, Mrs. Panepinto, and Mrs. Guerin, designs and sews costumes.

No, No, Nanette

On November 20, 21, and 22, 1981, Broadway came to Drexel Hill. Two hundred talented students from Prendie and Bonner drew a large crowd each night to see their smooth, professional acting and brilliant song-and-dance act. Along with the cast, the chorus, stage crew, costume crew, make-up crew, and dedicated production staff worked long nights for seemingly endless weeks to get the whole huge show together. The cast, under the direction of Harry Dietzler, was open to anyone with a whit of talent. The actors, actresses, singers, and dancers dazzled the audience with terrific toe-tapping and a sweet rendition of "Tea for Two" along with other old favorites from the summer of 1925.

(right) Because Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers were not available, Luke Cloran and Gail Dietzler gracefully stepped in.

Meghan Doyle shows how it's done.

One wonders why these fashions didn't catch on in France.

Nanette, played by Kim Doyle, just found out another "No-No."

Which one will explode first, Pauline (Anne Colgan) or the temperamental vacuum cleaner?

Flora (Fran Manning) pours on the appeal.

Flora, Winnie, and Betty give Jimmy the evil eye.

"Go on, I dare ya! Knock it off."

Chapel Aides, Close-Up

Chapel Aides president,
Eileen O'Dea

Chapel Aides is a group of girls whose privilege it is to care for the chapel and altar linens and prepare for daily and special Masses. The Close-Up program enables members to have a first-hand look at the nation's government during a week in Washington, D.C., where they observe government "live."

A-V Service, Video-Tape Recording, School Store

Audio-Visual Service president,
Patricia Lee

A-V Service girls not only distribute and collect equipment, but also come to the rescue when equipment breaks down. V-T-R members often film school activities in action and set up machines for mini-closed-circuit T.V. The ability to keep one's cool on a hectic day is a must for salesgirls at "Panda Paper Palace."

Audio-Visual Service. First row: A. Lichman, M. McHugh, P. Lee, Sister Mary Francis, moderator. Second row: M.T. McAleer, N. Miller, K. Crescenzo.

Forensics

President,
Lisa Bellino

Speech! Speech! With the 1981 Sweepstakes Trophy from the Philadelphia Catholic Forensics League for J. V. speech category in hand, the Forensics team went into action with much preparation and confidence again this year. Members competed locally and also traveled to Scranton, Baltimore, and Pittsburgh to participate in speech events. Surely a fringe benefit is the making of many new friends.

Respect Life

The Respect Life Club is a group of concerned individuals whose purpose is to fight for and protect a person's right to life, whether it be the unborn or the elderly. Their care and enthusiasm to help is reflected through various programs which include the March for Life in Washington on January 22 and their annual visit to St. John's Hospice before Christmas.

Prendie: Pro Life and Proud!

Spanish, Latin, French Clubs

The language clubs strive to be a means of enriching members' knowledge of a foreign culture. Spanish Club members learn Latin-American ways through folk dances, songs, games, conversation, and preparation of food. Field trips and toga parties are on the Latin Club calendar. Films and conversation en français are enjoyed by French Club members. In March all three groups participate in an international dinner prepared by Prendie chefs.

Mathletes, Hi-Q, Science Club

Mathletes, Scott's Hi-Q, and Science Club all offer out-of-the-classroom development of specialized knowledge. Mathletes stimulates interest in mathematics by competition while also offering enjoyment with students from other schools. Scott's Hi-Q encourages academic achievement in every subject by inter-scholastic quiz competitions. The Science Club increases interest in science through films and field trips.

Mame

As the curtain opened for Mame, Prendie's twenty-first annual play, the audience was hushed by the wild, flapping cast of the roaring 20's. Swept through the years, spectators caught a glimpse of the extravagant, vivacious Mame, accompanied by her dear companion Vera, her southern husband Beauregarde, and her growing and lovable son Patrick. Although troubled by problem upon problem, Mame was always full of hope for a bright tomorrow. Under the talented direction of Mr. David Hutchman, Sister Barbara Maria, and Sister Marian Laura, the cast was given the incentive to say, "We think you're just sensational, Mame."

(right) Three sneaky cops are about to crash the party in the speak-easy.

Make-up artist Lisa McCusker gets Debbie Burns ready for curtain time.

"The man in the moon is a lady!"

The whole gang arrives for a party at Mame's.

Auntie Mame assures Patrick that he is her "best beau."

"...and they lived happily ever after."

Chorus

No matter what time of day (from dawn till dusk during winter months!), music of melodious voices pours out of room 302. The 100 members of Chorus contribute their musical talent and long practices to enhance many programs and liturgies. Outside-of-school events include singing at Leader Nursing Home and Granite Run Mall during the Christmas season. The Spring Musicale is the finale to the musical year for the girls in Chorus.

Orchestra

The A.P.H.S. Orchestra has been around since the beginning of the school's history. Vito La Monaca and Sister Regina Assumpta, first directors, collaborated to write the "Alma Mater" and "Girls of Prendergast High." These and many other songs are performed throughout the year. The orchestra practices en masse four hours a week, but orchestra students have daily classes in theory, music history, and their instruments.

There are eighty-four girls in the group and eleven boys. The violin section boasts the most members, twenty-three, while there is only one French horn. The orchestra this year has taken its repertoire to the Festival at Cabrini College and a Pennsylvania Music Educators' Competition.

At times Orchestra seems more a way of life than an extra-curricular activity. In spite of all the time and hard work involved, members enjoy being part of the Prendie entertainment world.

Tri - M

Madrigals

Folk Group

Tri-M is a national honor society for music. Its members are students who have excelled in Chorus or Orchestra through service and performance. Madrigals, a select organization of accomplished singers, add an extra special something to liturgical functions and other performances. Folk group provides music for Masses and musical shows. Much of their music is upbeat and modern.

"Christmas at Home" was the theme of the Christmas Show that almost wasn't (due to snowed-out rehearsals). But Christmas would not be Christmas without Prendie's annual injection of that magic Christmas spirit. The Orchestra opened the show with a holiday medley. The Madrigals, Chorus, and Folk Group sang joyously of Christmas past and present. With the stage transformed into a toyland, the Dance Troupe became for a few moments toy soldiers and Strawberry Shortcake dolls. During the Nativity scene at the end, the audience was led in a beautiful prayer.

Even though they're rookies, Freshman Chorus girls sing like pros.

(right) Roseanne, Kim, and Christine jazz it up to Christmas melodies.

Christmas Show

(bottom) Charlene Smith's new baby brother plays the lead role in the Nativity scene.

Jeanette deftly coaxes Christmas music out of her cello.

THE LIGHT ON THIS HILL WILL SHINE
FOREVER IN THE HEARTS OF THOSE WHO

Entered these gates.

Can you remember four years ago when all of us walked through those gates? Prendergast seemed enormous and it looked as if the line of girls would never end. But now look at everyone—we have become one. When seniors walk through the halls they never stop saying "hi." And even if someone doesn't know your name, your face is familiar. Each of us shares this unity, yet we remain unique. One could say that the class of 1982 resembles a rainbow. Together we form the arc, while separately we add the color of our individuality. When the two are put together, the result is a radiance of light too beautiful for words. And enhancing this radiance is the light from the bell tower which will ever rekindle joyous memories of our Prendie days.

Ring Day

On October 9, 1981, the Class of 1982 received their precious rings. The day began with a reverent celebration of the Mass, during which Father Givey pointed out the symbolism behind the tradition of reversing the rings after graduation. The Blessed Mother faces the graduate to remind her to grow closer to Mary, her model.

When Mass was over, the reverent spirit burst as joyous girls let their tears flow and displayed their prized rings for all to see. They later munched out with their moms at lunch. The rest of the pent-up energy and excitement was let loose on the dance floor with escorts and friends. The entire day was a dream finally fulfilled.

Junior Dance

The class of 1982 had a spectacular "Celebration" in Prendie's gym on April 10, 1981. The TREES provided the entertainment while the girls literally "danced all night." Every girl and her date will long remember the night as truly being the "Best of Times."

(right) Elaine Kelso and her date enter into the "Celebration" of the class of 1982.

Dad-Daughter Dance

Friday, the thirteenth of November, 1981, the lucky seniors were escorted by their fathers to the Dad-Daughter Dance, one of the oldest and dearest A.P.H.S. traditions. The class of '82 and their dads overcame superstition and had a grand time dancing and chatting with old friends. While the cool CONTEMPORARIES played everything from big band music and polkas to disco and rock-n-roll, daring dads attempted to boogie-down, and their brave daughters tried waltzing. Cheerful smiles, despite bruised toes, evidenced the terrific time dads had with their grown up "little girls."

Marianne McCormick and her dad enjoy a big hug.

Mr. Brisgone "could have danced all night" with his daughter Sue.

Karen Ellis whispers sweet nothings in her father's ear.

Mr. Hughes has his hands full with his daughters, Marie and Beth.

Caroline Tucker and her dad take a breather between dances.

To the Class of '82 with love,

Here we are, the graduates of 1982, no longer freshmen, sophomores, juniors, or seniors—but graduates. These past four years have been special, growing experiences, each year enhancing the beauty within each one of us. As the freshmen of '78 we established new friendships and enthusiastically learned about Prendie spirit. Sophomore year quickly caught up with us. We tossed aside our shyness and showed to everyone the great enthusiasm of our class. Junior year was the half-way point which brought the "unattainable" senior year into view. This year challenged us to become young ladies capable of achieving the goals we set for ourselves. Before we knew it, senior year—once a dream—became a reality. Now, as women, we realized the importance of Prendie and the memories it brought.

Finally we, as graduates of Archbishop Prendergast High School, set out for new destinations, but all of us will forever treasure that special moment on June 11, 1982, when the tassels were turned and we officially became proud alumnae of A.P.H.S.

The farewell we thought would never come has now arrived.

Good luck graduates of '82

*We'll miss you.
Good-bye.*

It takes all kinds to make the Top 45

Is there a typical Top 45 student? Does she eat Wheaties to give her brains? Does she spend her weekends reading dictionaries? Does she go out with Dexters or not at all? Does she buy her clothes at Bernard's Bargain Basement? Is her all-time favorite singing star Bobby Sherman? Does she spell relief B-O-O-K-S? Does her Saturday night consist of Fig Newtons and Lawrence Welk? Well, maybe or maybe not. We'll let you decide.
